W. C.Robinson
Delhi, N.Y.

Sir:

Recomputation of the figures on the face of the income tax return filed by you for the year 1931 discloses errors which result in an increase of tax of $ 8.33.

The errors are:

You have used your net income of $7433.69 as a basis of arriving at your credit for earned income. You are advised that you are only entitled touse $5000. Your credit is therefore reduced from $13.95 to $5.62.

The tax is increased from $41.85 to $51.18. It will be appreciated if you will attach the copy of this letter to your remittance in the amount indicated hereon. In case such remittance is not received promptly it will be necessary to issue a formal Notice and Demand for the amount.

Respectfully,
J. W. Clarke,
J W Clarke
Collector
